INTRODUCTION

This Manual is published in terms of Section 51 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000 (Act No. 2 of 2000) (“the Act”). It is intended to foster a culture of transparency and accountability by giving effect to the right to information that is required for the exercise or protection of any right and actively promotes a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to more fully exercise and protect their rights.

The Act gives effect to the provisions of Section 32 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, which provides for the right of access to information held by the State and to information held by another person that is required for the exercise and / or protection of any right.

Section 9 of the Act however recognises that such right to access to information cannot be unlimited and should be subject to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to:

Limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy;
Commercial confidentiality;
Effective, efficient and good governance;

and in a manner, which balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.

This manual applies in respect of each subsidiary of Efficient Group as set out in this manual, as well as any future subsidiaries of Efficient Group. The Information Officer named below is accordingly appointed in respect of Efficient Group and each of the private bodies constituting Efficient Group.

EFFICIENT GROUP OVERVIEW

Efficient Group Ltd, a public company duly incorporated in the Republic of South Africa, with registration number 2006/036947/06, is a diversified financial services business, specializing, through its various subsidiaries, in asset management-, financial planning- and asset administration services.

Efficient Group supports the constitutional right of access to information and we are committed to provide you with access to our records in accordance with the provisions of the Act, the confidentiality we owe to third parties and the principles of South African law.

AVAILABILITY OF THIS MANUAL

A copy of this Manual is available on our website (www.efgroup.co.za) or by sending a request for a copy to the Information Officer by email. The Manual may also be obtained from our head office or from the South African Human Rights Commission ("SAHRC") at the addresses set out below. This Manual will be updated from time to time, as and when required.

HOW TO REQUEST ACCESS TO RECORDS HELD BY EFFICIENT GROUP

Requests for access to records held by Efficient Group must be made on the request form that is available from our website and office, from the SAHRC website (www.sahrc.org.za) or the Department of Justice and Constitutional Development (http://www.justice.gov.za/forms/paia/J752_paia_Form%20C.pdf). Not using this form could cause your request to be refused (if you do not provide sufficient information or otherwise) or delayed.

A request fee may be payable (the schedule of fees is available on our website). You can submit a request without paying the request fee but please note that payment of the prescribed fees must be made before the request will be processed.

Requests for access to records must be made to our Information Officer at the address, fax number or electronic mail address provided for below.

The requester must provide sufficient detail on the request form to enable the Information Officer to identify the record and the requester. The requester should also indicate which form of access is required and indicate if he or she wishes to be informed in any other manner and state the necessary particulars to be so informed.

Where you know which company in Efficient Group holds the record/s you are requesting, please indicate this fact. Where you are unsure which company holds the record/s please provide as much detail as possible about the record to facilitate our search and to avoid any possible delays.

The requester must identify the right that he or she is seeking to exercise or protect and provide an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right.

If a request is made on behalf of a person, the requester must then submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the satisfaction of the Information Officer of Efficient Group.

Kindly note that all requests to Efficient Group will be evaluated and considered in accordance with the Act. Publication of this manual and providing a description of the categories and subject matter of information held by Efficient Group does not give rise to any rights (in contract or otherwise) to access such information or records except in terms of the Act.

Grounds for refusal of access to records (Chapter 4 of the Act)

Apart from Section 7 of the Act, and subject to section 70 of the Act, the main grounds for Efficient Group to refuse a request for information as contemplated by the Act relates to:

Protection of the privacy of a third party, if that third party is a natural person, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural person (section 63 (1));

Protection of commercial information of a third party as defined by the Act, if the record contains:

Trade secrets of that third party;

Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information other than trade secrets of a third party, the disclosure of which would be likely to cause harm to the commercial or financial interests of that third party;

Information disclosed in confidence to Efficient Group by a third party, the disclosure of which could put that third party at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations, would prejudice that third party at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations, or would prejudice that third party in commercial competition (section 64).

Protection of confidential information if the disclosure would constitute a breach of a duty or confidence to a third party in terms of an agreement (section 65);

Protection of safety of individuals and protection of property (section 66);

Protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in any legal proceedings, unless the person so entitled to privilege waives the privilege (section 67);

Protection of commercial activities of Efficient Group which includes:

Trade secrets of Efficient Group;

Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information, disclosure of which could cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of Efficient Group;

Information which, if disclosed, could put Efficient Group at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;

A computer programme owned by Efficient Group, and which is protected by copyright. (section 68)

The research information of Efficient Group or a third party on behalf of Efficient Group if the disclosure would expose the third party, Efficient Group, the researcher or the subject matter of the research to serious disadvantage (Section 69).

Remedies Available in refusal of a request for information (part 4 of the Act)

Efficient Group does not have internal appeal procedures and as such, the decision made by the information Officer is final.

Should the requester be dissatisfied with the Information Officer's decision to refuse access, that person may within 30 days after notification of the refusal apply to a Court for the appropriate relief.

Should a third party be dissatisfied with the information officers decision to grant a request for information relating to that third party, it (the third party) may within 30 days of notification of such decision, apply to a court for the appropriate relief. For purposes of the Act, courts that have jurisdiction are the Constitutional court, the High court, or another court of similar status.
